

RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED BY PUBLIC LAW 90-351

Public Law 90-351 (Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act), approved June 19, 1968, makes it unlawful for any person described in one of the below-listed categories to receive, possess, or transport in interstate or foreign commerce any firearms under penalty of a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both:

1. Who has been convicted of a felony in any federal court; or court of any state or political subdivision thereof;
2. Who has been discharged from the armed forces under other than honorable conditions;
3. Who has been adjudged mentally incompetent by a federal court or court of any state or political subdivision thereof;
4. Who, having been a citizen of the United States, has renounced that citizenship;
5. Who, being an alien, is illegally or unlawfully in the United States.

It is possible for a convicted felony offender to seek relief from the disabilities imposed by Public Law 90-351. Requests for applications desiring relief should be directed by the affected party to: Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, Office of Public and Government Affairs, 650 Massachusetts Ave., NW., Room 8290, Washington, DC 20226.
